Rani Durgavati Vishwavidyalaya Jabalpur, B.L. Amlani College of Commerce and Economics, Hinduja College of Commerce and Dayanand Arya Kanya Mahavidyalaya Collaboratively organized a short term course on Sanskrit Language. Sanskrit is the sacred language of Hinduism, the language of classical Hindu philosophy, and of historical texts of Buddhism and Jainism. It was a link language in ancient and medieval South Asia, and upon transmission of Hindu and Buddhist culture to Southeast Asia, East Asia and Central Asia in the early medieval era, it became a language of religion and high culture, and of the political elites in some of these regions. The intention of the lecture series to make the people understand that due to advance and modern world betterment we learning new and international languages but in between we leaving our ancient language behind unknowingly.

Awareness Program on Code of Conduct

16th April 2022

Prof. Rohit Kashinath Pithale began his lecture presentation by stating the definition of code of conduct. He said A code of conduct is the most common policy within an organization and This policy lays out the company's principles, standards, and the moral and ethical expectations that employees and third parties are held to as they interact with the organization. Then he explained how code of conduct is an integral part of compliance efforts, as it provides documentation that an employee or third party has violated company policy if illegal activity arises. Then he moved to the importance of code of conduct. He mentioned that a code of conduct serves as a reference point for employees to make better choices on a day-to-day basis. To conclude his lecture, he finally explained what an effective code of conduct in an organization is. An effective code of conduct of an organization must include few things like, First, they should be regularly reviewed. The code should be a living, breathing document that is highly relevant to employees and their work and finally, an effective code of conduct is digestible by the audience it is intended for. It should not be overloaded with legal speak that only the lawyers at the company can understand but instead written in an uncomplicated format that is easy for all to comprehend.
