Dear Mr. Dinesh Chotrani

Re: Letter of Appreciation for the Conduct of FEP

We extend to you, our sincere gratitude for conducting the Faculty Exchange Program, under the MoU signed by our Institutions and engaging our T. Y. BMS students in the subject of International Marketing (Module IV), between March 22 – April 10, 2021.

We thank you for the excellent lectures delivered for the same. The lectures did provide the students an exposure to yet another teaching style and lesson delivery.

We look forward to continued associations of such magnitude between the two Institutions.

With warm regards,

Dr. MeetaPathade

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

Between

National Institute of Disaster Management, India

B.L. Amiani College of Commerce & Economics M.R.
Nathwani College of Arts, India

National Institute of Disaster Management is a statutory organization under the Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India, mandated under the Disaster Management Act 2005 to be the apex institution with a vision to play the role of a premier institute in India and the region for capacity building, training, research, documentation and policy advocacy on all areas of disaster management in India. The efforts in this direction that began with the formation of the National Centre for Disaster Management (NCDM) in 1995 gained impetus with its re-designation as the National Institute of Disaster Management (NIDM) for training and capacity development. Under the Disaster Management Act 2005, NIDM has been assigned nodal responsibilities for human resource development, capacity building, training, research, documentation and policy advocacy in the field of disaster management. NIDM has established networking with a large number of scientific, technical, academic, training and practicing organizations within and outside the governments at the local, provincial, national, regional and international levels for effective implementation of its mandate. The institute works through strategic partnerships with various ministries and departments of the central, state and local governments, academic, research and technical organizations in India and abroad and other bi-lateral and multi-lateral international agencies. The Institute provides training in face-to-face, on-line and self-learning mode as well as satellite based training. In-house and off-campus face-to-face training to the officials of the state governments is provided free of charge including boarding and lodging facilities.

B. L. Amiani College of Commerce & Economics and M. R. Nathwani College of Arts, was established in the year 2009 under the banner of Matushri Kanbai, Lalbai & Motibai Lohana Kanyashala & Ballkagrub (MKLM) formed in 1906 in the Juhu area of suburban Vile-Parle. The College is affiliated to the University of Mumbai and is one of the only girl's college offering quality Professional Degree Education in Mumbai. Its mission is to empower women by providing them with a conducive environment for acquiring professional skills, through an education that is life and career oriented value-based and creative in the pursuit of excellence. BLAC offers a wide spectrum of choices for the students to choose undergraduate programmes in various disciplines of arts, commerce, science, management, Banking, and mass media. The institution mainly encourages a dialogue on youth development issues and concerns. During the Pandemic crises the college hosted more than 100 Webinars along with Government Bodies, Universities and NGOs to enhance the spirit of socialism in the community. The institution aims at the holistic development of women, by providing learning opportunities to empower her with knowledge, skills and attitudes, to face personal and professional challenges with confidence, inculcating values of respect, commitment and concern for the service of others, thereby enabling her to make a positive contribution to the society. The institution also received Best Extension Unit Award for excellence in Community services from Department of lifelong learning and Extension, University of Mumbai during the academic year 20-21.

WHEREAS, it is the statutory object of the B.L.Amlani College of Commerce to disseminate and advance knowledge by providing instructional, research and extension facilities in such branches of learning as it may deem fit and shall endeavor to provide to students and teachers the necessary atmosphere and facilities for the promotion of:-

- (a) Innovations in education leading to re-structuring of courses, new methods of teaching and learning and integral development of personality.
- (b) Studies in various disciplines
- (c) Inter disciplinary studies
- (d) National Integration, secularism and international understanding.
- (e) Research, Seminars, Workshops and standardization of curriculum on Disaster Risk Reduction under IJIN-DRR

Whereas both NIDM and B.L.Amlani College of Commerce have common overall objectives, and similar scope of activities with potentially complementary methodologies. Therefore

Considering the direction of Hon'ble Prime Minister of India's 10 point and 6 agenda, Global issues on Climate Change Adaptation (CCA), Sendai Framework for Disaster Risk Reduction(2015-2030), and Sustainable Development Goals(SDG) it's become important to partnering with Higher Education Institutions (HEI), Universities and other science and technology communities which have been envisioned for promoting innovative technology and research, facilitate capacity development, and contribute to decision-making for addressing local risks and the needs of the most vulnerable. To address important issues there is need to work together for the two organizations in the following broad goals:

- Awarding academic & professional training related on/off line degree/diplomas/certificates jointly.
- Capacity building activities for mainstreaming disaster risk reduction as part of training courses.
- Development and strengthen the course curriculum on Disaster Risk Management at University/college level.
- Undertaking case studies of disasters/events with respect to response, relief, rehabilitation, recovery on field investigation.
- To collaborate for documentation / evaluation studies for various thematic areas jointly.
- Undertaking research projects of mutual interest to both institutions.
- Faculty exchange programme to strengthen the programme for DRR.
- Logistics & Human resource support for organizing seminar, research, training programme ON/OFF line jointly
- To take up fellowship programmes jointly with, where NIDM faculty can be included as co-guides.
- Publications of joint articles/journals/monographs/books, educational/awareness materials etc.
- Taking up design /consultancy/pilot projects in the area of disaster management on mutually agreeable terms and conditions.
- Capacity building of governments and other stakeholders and facilitating interpretation of continually updated tools and methodology based on emerging lessons from the ground and delivering training modules to government officers /other relevant stakeholders in the country and in South Asia region.
- Conducting and supporting consultation, conferences, workshops, knowledge and experience sharing.
- Any other areas of mutual interest shall be undertaken.

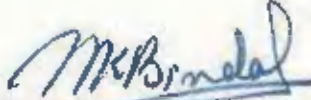

Status of the Agreement

1. The provision of this MoU may be amended at any time with the mutual consent of the parties in writing.
2. The amendment, termination and expiration of this MoU will not affect the Terms of activities ongoing formal project agreements at the time of amendment, termination and expiration unless otherwise agreed between the parties.
3. The Agreement between the two parties, viz. NIDM and B.L.Amlani College of Commerce has no legal binding and financial commitments on any of the parties. The Agreement is for general purpose on the above mentioned scope of areas of cooperation.

This MoU is prepared in two identical copies. Each party holds one original copy duly signed by the NIDM and B.L.Amlani College of Commerce.

IN WITNESS WHERE OF the Parties here to acting through their duty authorized representatives have executed this Memorandum in their respective names on dates herein after mentioned.

10. Force Majeure

10.1. Either Party shall be excused from any delay or failure in performance required hereunder if caused by reason of any occurrence or contingency beyond its reasonable control, including, but not limited to, acts of God, acts of war, fire, insurrection, strikes, lock-outs or other serious labour disputes, riots, earthquakes, floods, explosions or other acts of nature. The obligations and rights of the Party so excused shall be extended on a day-to-day basis for the time period equal to the period of such excusable interruption. When such events have abated, the Parties' respective obligations hereunder shall resume. In the event the interruption of the excused Party's obligations continues for a period in excess of ninety (90) calendar days, either Party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement upon thirty (30) calendar days' prior written notice to the other Party.

11. No Agency

11.1. The parties are independent contractors, and this Agreement does not create an agency, partnership or joint venture.

12. Amendments

12.1. Any amendment must be in writing and expressly state that it is amending this Agreement.

13. SISPL's confidentiality obligations.

13.1. The provider must

- 13.1.1. keep the College Confidential Information strictly confidential;
- 13.1.2. not disclose the College Confidential Information to any person without the College's prior written consent and then only under conditions of confidentiality approved in writing by the College OR no less onerous than those contained in this Agreement
- 13.1.3. use the same degree of care to protect the confidentiality of the College Confidential Information as the Provider uses to protect the Provider's own confidential information of a similar nature, being at least a reasonable degree of care;
- 13.1.4. act in good faith at all times in relation to the College Confidential Information and
- 13.1.5. not use any of the College Confidential Information for any purpose other than the specific purpose.
- 13.1.6. Not sell or disclose the college's data to any third party

13.2. the Provider may disclose the College Confidential Information to the Provider's officers, employees, professional advisers, insurers, agents and subcontractors who have a need to access the College Confidential Information for the performance of their work with respect to this Agreement and who are bound by a written agreement or professional obligation to protect the confidentiality of the College Confidential Information.

13.3. This Clause 13 imposes no obligations upon the Provider with respect to College Confidential Information that:

13.3.1. is known to the Provider before disclosure under this Agreement and is not subject to any other obligation of confidentiality;

13.3.2. is or becomes publicly known through no act or default of the Provider; or

13.3.3. is obtained by the Provider from a third party in circumstances where the Provider has no reason to believe that there has been a breach of an obligation of confidentiality.

13.4. The restrictions in this Clause 13 do not apply to the extent that any College Confidential Information is required to be disclosed by any law or regulation, by any judicial or governmental order or request, or pursuant to disclosure requirements relating to the listing of the stock of the Provider on any recognised stock exchange.

13.5. The provisions of this Clause 13 shall continue in force indefinitely following the termination of this Agreement OR for a period of six months following the termination of this Agreement, at the end of which period they will cease to have effect.

14. Exclusivity - SLSP will exclusively provide and maintain a branded job board for the college and its end users for minimum period of two years. The college gives us explicit rights to use the college/school/university's brand for the said purpose of creating a job board for its students and in good faith.

15. Scheduled maintenance

15.1. The Provider may from time to time suspend the Hosted Services for the purposes of scheduled maintenance to the Platform, providing that such scheduled maintenance must be carried out in accordance with this Clause 15

15.2. The Provider shall ensure that all scheduled maintenance is carried out outside Business Hours.

16. College Data

16.1. The College hereby grants to the Provider a non-exclusive license to copy, reproduce, store, distribute, publish, export, adapt, edit and translate the College Data to the extent reasonably required for the performance of the Provider's obligations and the exercise of the Provider's rights under this Agreement. The College also grants to the Provider the right to sub-license these rights to its hosting, connectivity and telecommunications service providers, subject to any express restrictions elsewhere in this Agreement.

16.2. The College warrants to the Provider that the College Data OR the College Data when used by the Provider in accordance with this Agreement will not infringe the Intellectual Property Rights or other legal rights of any person and will not breach the provisions of any law, statute or regulation, in any jurisdiction and under any applicable law.

16.3. The Provider can delete college data when the service is completed, contract is terminated, or in any other situation deemed reasonable by the provider

17. No assignment of Intellectual Property Rights

17.1. Nothing in this Agreement shall operate to assign or transfer any Intellectual Property Rights from the Provider to the College; or from the College to the Provider,

18. Data protection

18.1. The Provider OR Each party shall comply with the Data Protection Laws with respect to the processing of the College Personal Data.

18.2. The College warrants to the Provider that it has the legal right to disclose all Personal Data that it does in fact disclose to the Provider under or in connection with this Agreement.

18.3. The College shall only supply to the Provider, and the Provider shall only process, in each case under or in relation to this Agreement

18.4. The College hereby authorises the Provider to make the following transfers of College Personal Data:

18.4.1. the Provider may transfer the College Personal Data internally to its own employees, offices and facilities in jurisdiction(s), providing that such transfers must be protected by appropriate safeguard.

18.4.2. the Provider may transfer the College Personal Data to its third party processors in the jurisdictions identified in this agreement such as internet service providers, hosting servers, telecommunications towers, etc (Data processing information) and may permit its third party processors to make such transfers, providing that such transfers must be protected by any appropriate safeguards identified therein; and

18.5. The Provider shall ensure that persons authorised to process the College Personal Data have committed themselves to confidentiality or are under an appropriate statutory obligation of confidentiality.

18.6. This MoU is effective from 13/12/ 2021, hereinafter mentioned as "Effective Date" by and between BL Amlani College of Commerce and Economics, managed under the Matushri Kanbai Lalbai & Motibal Lohana Kanyashala & Balikagruh Trust affiliated to the University of Mumbai, Maharashtra, registered under The Maharashtra Public Trust Act, 1950 (if applicable) and hereinafter referred to as "The College", having PAN AAATM4699P, represented by its Principal, Dr. Jitendra Aherkar.

AND

TNS India Foundation, a charitable organization registered under section 25 of the Companies Act 1956 and having its registered office at B1-201, Centre Point, Opposite Bawla Masjid, 243A, N M Joshi Marg, Lower Parel (E), Mumbai-400 013, hereinafter referred as "TNSIF" having PAN AAECT4021D, represented by its Senior Practice Leader, Rupa Bohra.

Background

TNS India Foundation (TNSIF), a section 25 Company incorporated under the provisions of the Companies Act, 1956 is conducting the "Campus to Corporate Careers (C2C) Program" for the enhancement of employability and workplace skills for deserving youth.

In this connection, TNSIF intends to be associated and work closely with the College to conduct employability training, career counselling sessions and job placements for final year college students.

Detailed features of the program are as follows:

1. 80 – 100 hours of training program including Personal and Professional Effectiveness (how to choose right career option, how to apply for job, tools-CVs, cover letter- etc.), Business communication (effective communication with co-workers and customers), Career Readiness (orienting students to jobs matching their skill sets and exposure to a career path) and Work Readiness (Professionalism, Work Ethics, Email Etiquettes, Workplace dynamics – etc.)
2. The training will be delivered via a blended learning approach i.e through in class sessions and online platforms (Google Meet and Zoom) as applicable.
3. Sessions of duration 3 hours duration will be conducted 5 days a week.
4. The program also includes individual student counseling, which will be conducted via online/offline platforms, as well as post training, pre-placement and post placement counselling.
5. Career fairs or individual placement drives will be conducted in an online/offline format to place-trained students in formal sector jobs.
6. The above mentioned training and placement is free of cost for both, the students and college.

Rupa Bohra

Based on the above, this MOU lays out the below responsibilities for both parties:

TNSIF agrees to –

1. Engage with the college, given the following conditions:
 - a. In consultation and agreement with the designated college point of contact.
 - b. Not charge the college or students for any part of the program.
 - c. Provide reports to the college on the training and placement status of students.
2. Mobilize the college students. This involves the following:
 - a. Conduct Orientation sessions to make students aware about the program and to register their interest.

 - b. Provide individual career-counselling support to in-training students.
 - c. Engage with parents of the students to make them aware of the program and to counsel them about their wards.
 - d. Provide certificates to trained students on successful completion of the training with an attendance criteria of 80%.
4. Place trained students. This involves the following:
 - a. Facilitate placement linkages with formal sector employers for interested students.
 - b. Arrange for career drives and fairs to place interested students.
 - c. Provide post-placement support to students to facilitate joining and on-boarding.

The College agrees to –

1. Engage with TNSIF staff, given the following conditions:
 - a. Providing one point of contact to coordinate all TNSIF-C2C activities.
 - b. Not charge TNSIF or students for any part of the program.
 - c. Communicate openly with the TNSIF point of contact for any deliverables or feedback.
2. Facilitate student engagement. This involves the following:
 - a. Assistance in student mobilization through dissemination of information on student what's app groups and other seminars.
 - b. Attending orientation sessions organized by TNSIF to encourage student participation.
3. Support training activities. This involves the following:
 - a. Support allocation of batches for optimum utilization of resources and training effectiveness.
 - b. Assist in scheduling batches keeping in mind college lecture timings.
 - c. Make classrooms available for in-person training sessions.
 - d. Allow use of online medium to reach and train students.
 - e. Assist in conducting parent engagement sessions.
4. Support placement activities. This involves the following:
 - a. Assist in mobilizing students to counsel regarding placement opportunities
 - b. Provide infrastructure assistance – classrooms, auditorium, computer laboratory etc. in conducting on-ground career fests.
 - c. Allow use of online medium to place students.
 - d. Not hold TNSIF C2C staff responsible for any miscommunication with the corporate HRs.
