

MKLM's
B.L.AMLANI COLLEGE OF COMMERCE & ECONOMICS
M.R.NATHWANI COLLEGE OF ARTS

Master of Arts (Economics)

MA Economics or Master of Arts in Economics is a two years long post-graduation course that is divided into 4 semesters. With a blend of all the aspects of economics in a society, MA Economics broadly and commonly focuses on topics like macroeconomics, microeconomics, public economics, econometrics, international and financial economics.

Program Outcome

MA Economics is the study of wealth production, distribution and consumption in a society. The course covers a huge part of macroeconomics in terms of price, output, employment etc. and microeconomics dealing with demands, supplies, markets, consumer behaviour and with related topics in an economy.

Program Specific Outcome

MA Economics gives a good hold of the subject to the students as it teaches the value of increasing demands and limited means to fulfill the growing needs.

Outcomes:

After completing your post-graduation in Economics, you can look forward to bagging job roles like Economist, Accountant, Actuary, Financial Consultant, Financial Planner, Risk Analyst, Investment Analyst, Economic Researcher, Economics Teacher/Professor, and much more.

Master of Arts (Psychology)

Master of Arts in Psychology programme is a two year degree programme, distributed in four semesters. The M.A. in Psychology offers a broad and in-depth study of psychology as a discipline. Psychology course students with an understanding of the field's in-depth and advanced components and its professional aspects. M.A. in Psychology degree focuses on psychology, and students enrolling in the degree learn about human psychology and behaviour.

Program Outcome

The M.A. Psychology curriculum is aimed at helping students not only acquire a fundamental understanding of domain-specific ideas but also to improve overall interpersonal and leadership abilities. As this field is so widespread, job possibilities can be found in NGOs, rehabilitation centres, juvenile justice departments, educational institutions, government organisations, and the sports industry, among other places.

Program Specific Outcome

In order to understand theories and improve their academic experience, those interested in pursuing an M.A. in Psychology must have a diverse skill set. These abilities are also essential for establishing a successful career and performing well in future positions.

Outcomes:

After completing your post-graduation in Psychology, you can look forward to bagging job roles like Career Psychology, Clinical Psychology, Industrial Psychology & Social Psychology.

